Modern bungalows with private garden or solariums that offer luxury and comfort. The complex has a communal swimming pool.

San Pedro del Pinatar is known for its beautiful beaches, natural mud baths and excellent water sports facilities, including marinas and yacht clubs. The Lo Pagán district offers a wide range of shopping, dining and entertainment, and the town has an established, year-round community. The mild climate makes it possible to enjoy outdoor activities all year round, while sports facilities such as an indoor swimming pool are available. The location offers easy access to major destinations such as the Mar Menor beaches, Dos Mares shopping center and Murcia-Corvera and Alicante airports.
